Depending on the ages of your kids, play a hide and seek game that illustrates the message Jesus gave to his disciples today about now you see me, now you don't, now you see me again. Here are two suggestions to drive the point home. Of course we do not know the timing of when Jesus will return, but we know he is coming!

Hot and Cold: Pick an object to hide. Have one family member close their eyes while another member hides the object. Then invite the one who hid their eyes to begin looking in the room for the object. You can direct them by saying, "warm", "hot", "hotter", "burning up" as they get closer to the object. When they are going away from the object you can say, "cool", "cooler", "freezing".

Hide and Seek: Pick someone to hide their eyes while the rest of the family hides anywhere in the house. Count to 10, open your eyes and begin the search for the hidden family members. As "it" finds players, they join in the search. Feel free to comment on how we must be ready and looking for Christ to return.
